Foreword:

We the Patrician staff, now give to you our Patrician, a record of events and happenings that have taken place this past year.

There are times of happiness, times of sadness, times of victory, times of defeat, and most of all times of memories.

Now, the 1969 Patrician is yours to treasure.

Dedication

"It is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

During the many years that Sister Mary Gabriel spent in service at St. Patrick's, she truly gave of herself. It was through her zeal and boundless capabilities that she was able to add to the betterment of our youth.

Sister combined the marvelous qualities of being an excellent teacher with warmth, kindness and understanding. In the classroom she patiently struggled with us teaching us to enjoy, as well as understand, French. However, she not only taught French, the subject marked on our report card, but also taught us the values of responsibility, diligence and effort. The marks on our character as a result of this teaching are much more important than the ones received in class.

Outside of the classroom her warmth and friendliness radiated throughout the school, working its way into the heart of each and every student. Her tireless instruction and endless patience have made her an important part of our lives.

Sister fully gave of herself in helping to make this yearbook one of the best; she labored along with us in planning our proms. In short, she helped to make senior year one to remember.

It is with sincere pleasure that we, the class of 1969, dedicate our yearbook to Sister Mary Gabriel.

Reverend Nicholas Campagnone

Mary Ann Bauman, Raymond Cook, Kathleen Fallarino and John Farrell listen to an explanation in introduction to business.

Members of the English III class, Richard Goca, Theresa Greaney and Robert Delanoy show by their expressions their different attitudes toward Lord of the Flies.

SISTER HELEN ANN

English

Sister Helen Ann brings Macbeth to life for John Lubera and Ernest Izzillo.

Linda Wase points out geographic regions of Gaul to her classmates.

SISTER MARY WINIFRED

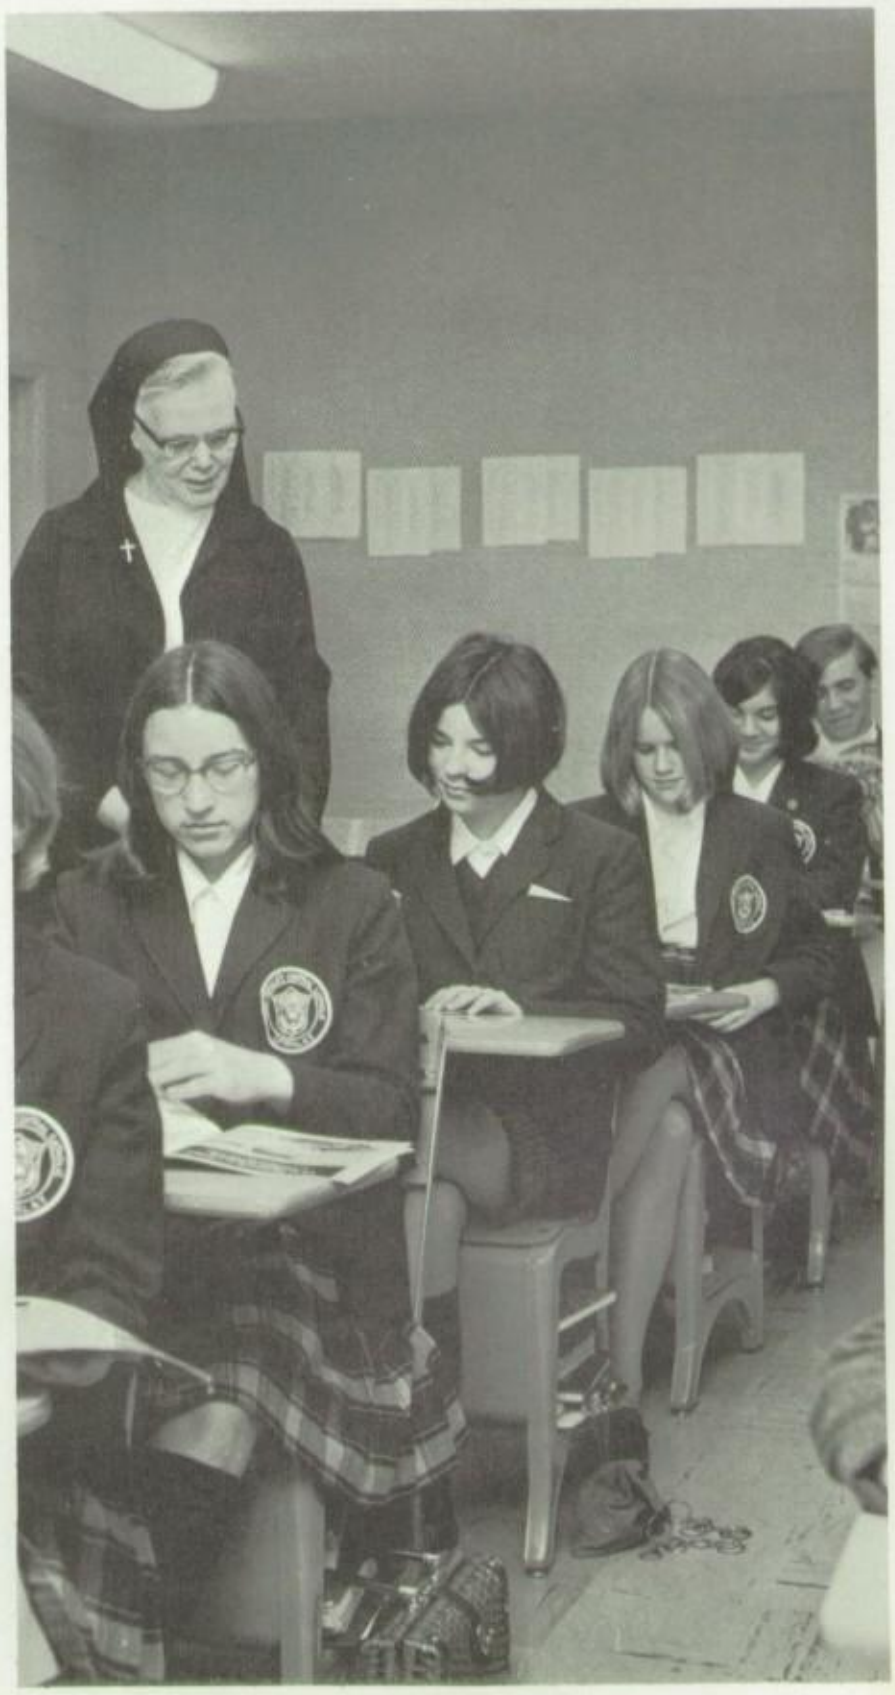
Sister Mary Winifred offers assistance to Elaine Keyser during the Latin poetry class.

Latin

Robert O'Connell, Glenda Hungerford, Steve Nickolich and Eddie Schumacher seem confident that they'll be able to answer any world history question.

During English I, Margaret Gallagher, Lorraine Gerber and Peter Lampman discuss the interesting characters in The Tale of Two Cities.

SISTER MARY ELIZABETH



Kathy Metzler, Mary Ryan, Thèresa Buckley, Patricia Cuomo and Raymond Cook review current events under the direction of Sister Mary Elizabeth in social studies.

History

Sister Ann Pierre explains the finer points of American History to Margaret Warren, Matthew St. Clair, Barbara Desco, Cindy Bonafide and Eileen Porto.

Jimmy Dul, Mary Ann Snyder, Louis Corratti, Patrice Schellier and Sister Ann Pierre argue a sociology problem after class.

SISTER ANN PIERRE

Ring Ceremony

On November 17, 1968, Father J. Joseph Delaney, Pastor of St. Theresa's Church in Windham, was our guest speaker at the ring ceremony. Father spoke on the symbolism attached to the wearing of the rings. All of us regard the possession of a ring as an honor and display them proudly.

Mrs. Zibella (below) shares in her daughter Lucille's pride in her newly attained class ring.

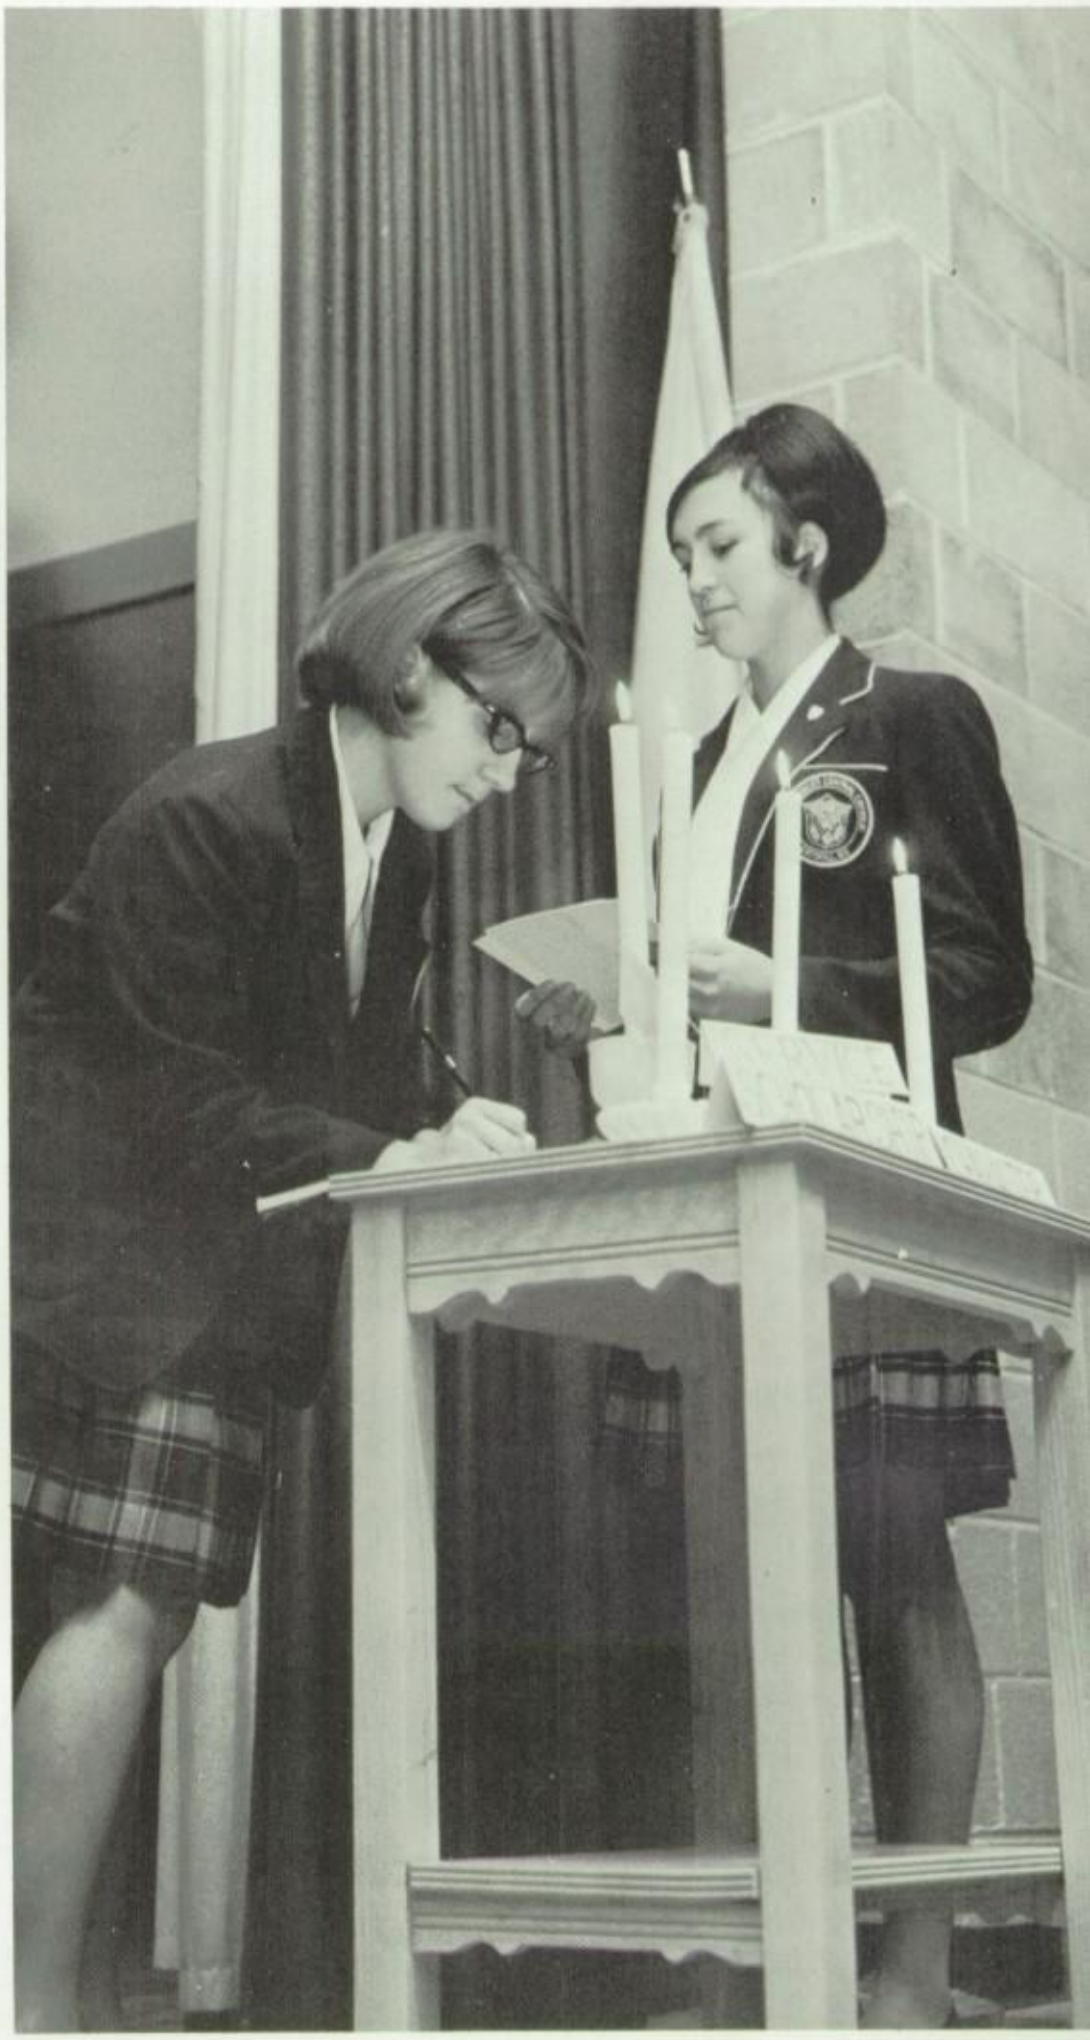
Honor Society

The Honor Society is a selection of Seniors and Juniors who are seeking to attain the ultimate in character, scholarship, leadership and service.

On November 13, 1968 seven new members were inducted into the Father Bernard Casey Chapter of the National Honor Society. Mr. Olsen, president of the newly formed Columbia-Greene Community College, impressed on everyone the honor and responsibility of being a member of the Honor Society.



Marie Szego, (upper left) vice president, lights the candle of scholarship as Mary DiPerna, secretary; James Warren, president; and Margaret Moon, treasurer; watch attentively. Mary DiPerna (above) welcomes Frances Maiuri as she is inducted into the society. Marie Szego (left) proudly represents Leadership, Service, Scholarship and Character which are the important qualities achieved by all members of the National Honor Society.

Merry Christmas

Sister Rose Agatha, Sister M. Naomi, and Sister Mary Winifred (below) proudly display their humorous Christmas gifts presented to them by the Honor Society. Santa Claus (Louis Corratti) (right) wishes Fr. George St. John a Merry Christmas as he presents him with his pipe cleaner, a gift from the Honor Society. James Pymm (bottom) leads the Senior Class in its presentation "A Christmas Narrative."

Hearts And Flowers

May Crowning

Traditionally the student body gathers each year to honor the Blessed Virgin. In serious meditation, we implore Mary for peace and brotherhood in a world where violence and prejudice too often exist. The student body (above) proceeds toward the shrine of Our Lady. Cathleen Dolan (right) and the guard of honor, Lorraine Gildersleeve, Kathryn Johnson, and Darlene VanZandt crown the queen of the May. The attendants and court (below) pause a moment in silent devotion to Mary.

Communion Breakfast

The graduating class of 1968 (top) participates in the liturgy at St. Theresa's, Windham. After the celebration of the liturgy, the Seniors (left) enjoy the Communion Breakfast presented by the Class of 1969. The Juniors (above) wait patiently for the underclassmen to bring their breakfast

Love Is Blue

With "Love Is Blue" setting the theme, the evening of May 17, 1968, proved to be a memorable one. As the couples arrived, they entered into the enchantment of serenity. The lowered ceiling provided a sky of blue sheltering the outdoor garden, swing and fountain.

After two hours of dancing, the ladies were escorted by their dates onto the floor for the Grand March.

The main attraction at "Love Is Blue" was, of course, the couples in attendance (above). Escorts and their dates (left) dance under a magnificent sky of blue. The Relatives (below) provided the evening with music and dance which everyone enjoyed.

Graduation 1968

The graduating class (below) sing their Alma Mater for the final time. The Senior Class (right) leaves the school building together for the last time. Fr. Campagnone (bottom) leads the graduating class in their rendition of "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands."

Guess Who's Coming Down The Chimney?

At the Christmas dance (top) sponsored by the Senior Class everyone enjoyed the music of the Backdoor Men. Mrs. Santa Claus (Elaine Keyser) (above) straightens Santa's cap (Matthew Hart) as Timothy Gallagher, John Greaney and Louis Corratti give a hearty HO-HO-HO! Santa Claus (Matthew Hart) (right) is congratulated by Mrs. Santa Claus (Elaine Keyser) and two Junior elves Jackie Wark and Barbara Amrod.

Paul Dolan drives in for a lay-up as St. Patrick's scores its way to another victory against St. Mary's of Hudson.

"Jump ball, jump ball, get it, get it."

Timmy Gallagher outjumps his opponent to win the ball for St. Pat's.

Father Hook gives the team a few pointers on their next play.

Baseball

The Emerald Knights again showed their superiority on the baseball diamond as evidenced by their 13-4 record. Swinging top bat for the team was Henry Betke with .375, while the man with the golden arm, Wayne VanZandt posted an impressive 7-1 record with an E.R.A. of 1.16. The team made an excellent showing by winning both the Southern Division and Play-Off Championships.

Dinkle alertly awaits the crack of the bat of the opposing team.

PAROCHIAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

St. Patrick's	34
St. Joseph's	46
Bishop Burke	66
St. John's	68

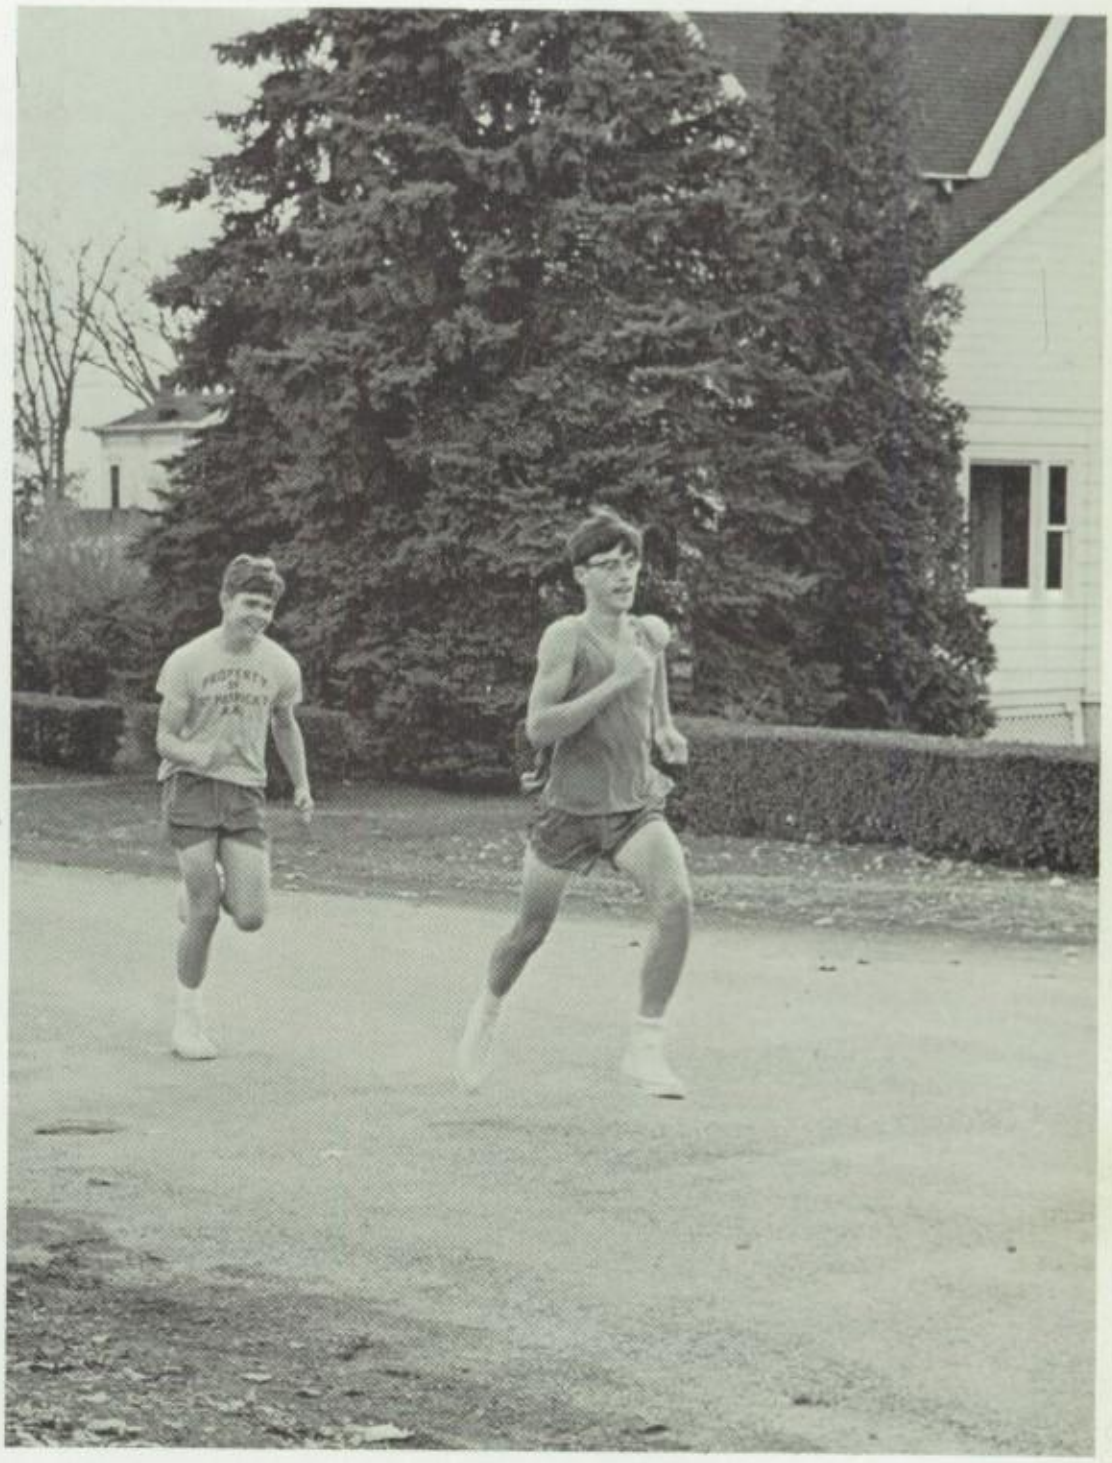
INDIVIDUAL WINNER:

Thomas DeSantis 12:14 New Course Record

Thomas DeSantis is congratulated by Father Paul Hook for his good showing at the Rip Van Winkle Trot.

Peter Eisenhardt takes the lead in the Rip Van Winkle Trot followed closely by Thomas DeSantis.

Third and fourth place runners, Paul Dolan and William Byrne, put their best foot forward.



St. Patrick's Track Team is off and running.

Golf

With the fifth season of golf at St. Patrick's, this outdoor sport has become one of excitement for our school. The team spirit was high and though they broke even in the league record, they never went down without a fight. As the 69 season comes into view, the team eyes the league title and practices with determination. A glimpse of St. Patrick's Golf Team (bottom) at the start of our fifth season: They are, left to right, Michael Roccio, Edmund Schumacher, William Byrne, Robert Liberti and Thomas DeSantis. Michael Roccio (below) tees off for a hole-in-one.

Observing the skill of their opponents, Michael Roccio and Richard Corrigan await their turn.

Bowling

School Staff

Mrs. Margaret McEntee (upper left) begins another day as secretary to Father George St. John. School nurse, Mrs. Godfried (upper right) pauses for a moment during her busy day. Mr. Jack, (above) custodian opens the door for an early arrival, Kevin Peters. All the supplies seem to be in check according to Mrs. Doris Swart (middle right). Mrs. Ida Ruzzi (right) and Mrs. Mary Cotich stop for a picture while preparing lunch in the kitchen.

KNOW WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU GO TO A SMALL COLLEGE?

THE TEACHERS KNOW WHO YOU ARE.

If you're interested in a small college with a great faculty that is interested in helping you get the meaningful and rewarding college education you seek, why not investigate The College of Saint Rose, a liberal arts college for women.

Small classes will let your teachers get to know you, and you'll get to know them, in the classroom and after class, at lunch, or over coffee. You'll have more opportunity for independent research and study. You'll learn more because you'll be challenged more . . . because the accent will be on you.

For information about programs of study and admission requirements, write to the Director of Admissions.

Biologically sto stare hencesto.
+ Biology matinees + popcorn.
Hope we have as much fun the rest of our high school years.
Love,
Sue

Oogie,
Best of luck
to the greatest kid. Never forget
our sophomore year.
Have fun.
Love
Debbie
